Police Lieutenant Not Reduced According to Law, Commission Holds

HOLDS RANK FOR PRESENT

Lieutenant Andrew Hamilton won a moral victory before the Civil Service Commission today when he was arraigned for insubordination. He had been ordered to report as a patrolman at the Belgrade and Clearfield streets station several weeks ago, and had re-fused to accept the demotion.

The members of the commission plainly indicated, while they withheld decision, that as he had not been properly demoted according to the legal form, he was still a lieutenant and therefore could not be tried as a paragraph of the country of the commission of the commission

The ommission held that under the law he should have been given written notice of the charges against him, and then been given five days to prepare his defense and reply.

A decision in the lieutenant's favor may not save him from demotion, as ordered by Director Cortelyon, but it would quash the present proceedings. He would then have to be demoted in the proper manner and subsequent events would shape themselves.

Sitting upon the case were Com-missioners Clinton Rogers Woodruft Louis Van Dusen and Charles Neeld. Superintendent Mills sat beside Lieu tenant Hamilton and chatted with him Mills opened the proceedings by out-lining what had occurred. He rend a letter from Director Cortelyon under date of June 16, ordering him to demore Hamilton to putralman. He sams mored Hamilton, he said, and said to him. The Republicans since their defeat in Dublin have strengthened their position in the southwest, and are now prepared to put up a big fight. They are reported to have taken a line from Waterford across the country to Limerick as a defensive front, intrenching themselves in preparation for the expected Free State assault.

Communication between Dublin and Dublin, July 18.— (By A. P.)—

Communication between Dublin and the country to the west of this line has been almost non-existent for some days, and what is happening there is largely a matter of conjecture. Patrick J. Little, head of the Republican publicity department, claims the Republican forces are in complete control of the whole country from Kerry to Newtonbarry and from Kerry to Newtonbarry and from Kerry to County Mayo.
